

Emoji Puzzles

Copyright ©

Dedication

Code available on GitHub

Intro

How to Play

1

Each page features 5 emojis. Your goal is to figure out which Movie, TV Show, or Book they represent.

2

At the top of the page are clues including , , or  to let you know the category.

3

The clues also include the genre, sub-genre, and release year.

4

Once you've made your guess, you can check the answer in the back of the book. Remember, no peeking!

Table of Contents

Movies ##

TV Shows ##

Books ##

Answers ##

Movies

Comedy | Romance | 2001

Crime | Drama | 2002

TV Shows

Comedy | Romance | 2005

Answer on page 22

Reality | Business | 2009

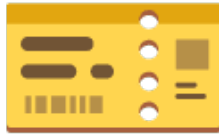

Books

Children's literature | Fantasy | 1964

Children's | Picture Book | 1969

Answers

The Hungry Caterpillar

A very hungry caterpillar eats his way through a variety of foods before transforming into a beautiful butterfly.

A caterpillar, representing the main character of the story

An apple, symbolizing the various foods the caterpillar eats

An ice cream cone, illustrating the caterpillar's indulgence in sweet treats

A butterfly, signifying the caterpillar's transformation into a butterfly after eating all the food

A sun, representing the passage of time in the story and the warm, pleasant environment for the caterpillar's development

Shark Tank

Budding entrepreneurs pitch their business ideas to wealthy investors, known as 'sharks', in hopes of securing funding and partnerships to grow their ventures.

A briefcase, representing the business aspect of the show

A shark, symbolizing the investors, who are fierce and competitive

A bag of money, indicating the funding entrepreneurs seek from the investors

A rising chart, demonstrating the potential growth and success of the businesses

A handshake, signifying the deals and partnerships made between the entrepreneurs and the sharks

How I Met Your Mother

Ted Mosby recounts the story of how he met his children's mother to his son and daughter, while recounting his adventures in New York City with his friends.

Ted Mosby, the main character

The mother, the central mystery of the show

A yellow umbrella, symbolizes the fateful meeting between Ted and the Mother

A beer, representing the friends hanging out at the bar, MacLaren's

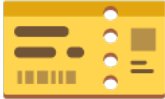

A taxi, representing New York City where the series takes place

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Young Charlie Bucket wins a golden ticket to visit the fantastical Wonka Chocolate Factory, meeting eccentric owner Willy Wonka and experiencing adventures with other ticket holders.

A chocolate bar, representing the main theme of the story

A ticket, symbolizing the golden ticket Charlie finds to gain entry to the factory

A boy, representing the main character, Charlie Bucket

A top hat, illustrating the quirky and enigmatic factory owner, Willy Wonka

A factory, for the Wonka Chocolate Factory where the story takes place

Catch Me If You Can

A con man poses as various professionals, such as a pilot and a doctor, while being chased by an FBI agent throughout the years.

An airplane, representing the protagonist's impersonation of a pilot

A detective, symbolizing the FBI agent tracking the protagonist

A dollar bill, illustrating the fraudulent checks and forgeries committed by the protagonist

A hospital, indicating the protagonist's time posing as a doctor

A bride, representing the protagonist's romantic relationships throughout the story

Legally Blonde

Elle Woods, a fashionable sorority queen, follows her ex-boyfriend to Harvard Law School to win him back, ultimately discovering her love for law and a newfound sense of self.

Elle Woods, the main character and sorority queen

A broken heart, representing Elle's initial motivation to attend law school due to her breakup with her boyfriend

A stack of books, symbolizing Elle's studies and growth at Harvard Law School

A balance scale, representing the legal profession and Elle's newfound passion for law

A dog, in honor of Elle's beloved pet, Bruiser

